

Vulnerable

ELHAE

Pray for your love
Take time for me
Waking my trust
When everything is honest
Truly
When everything is honest
Yeah

I know you got your guard up
I've had mine up for too long
I don't wanna get caught up
Up in something for too long
Maybe I'm just afraid
Afraid you'll take me for granted
I would rather be alone
Than to be your regret
Yeah, yeah

Can I belong to you
Be vulnerable with

You by taking time away
Together and telling
Secrets swore I would never say
Let go of my fears and my past
Are you a hiding place
I'm not the best with emotions
Are you my safest space

Baby you're my saving grace
Got me thinking 'bout changing your last name
Girl I wanna know why you chose me
Make me believe I can fly when you hold me baby

Baby truth be told I'm kinda scared
Will you be there for me
Still care for me
I just wanna meet you there
And I be by myself in this

See I can't lie I wasn't sure
But these feelings I can't ignore
So why don't we try
Want you to only be mine
Only mine baby

Can I
Can I belong to you
Be vulnerable with you
