Burning

Eli & Fur

It's unpredictable
The eyes we think we show and tell
Been hiding in the cold but even on our own it melts

If the vision is a lie
Then why do we feel so alive?
It's enough for you and I
You and I
From your conscience to your mind
There's too much here to disguise
It's enough for you and I
You and I

We keep burning, we keep burning
We keep burning, we keep burning

We keep burning, we keep burning
We keep burning, we keep burning

We fell into the breeze
With smoke we never see, we wait
The river starts to flow
To places that we know we'll stay

If the vision is a lie
Why do we feel so alive?
It's enough for you and I
You and I

From your conscience to your mind
There's too much here to disguise
It's enough for you and I
You and I

We keep burning, we keep burning
We keep burning, we keep burning

We keep burning, we keep burning
We keep burning, we keep burning
We keep burning
We keep burning
We keep burning, we keep burning
We keep burning
We keep burning
We keep burning, we keep burning
