

Coming Back

Eli & Fur

Never in the right place
Always in the wrong place with you
Turning down the runway
Turning down the runway for you

When it's just enough to break
Turning down the runway with you

Coming back
Coming back, coming back

Whenever you're with me
Everything else [?]
Taking what you give me
I leave without a reason why
Out here where the lines go on and on
I leave without a reason why

Coming back
Coming back, coming back

When I think about it
Seems like it's always been the same
Why have I been lying?
Why have I been lying awake?
Hard to make decisions in the dark
Why have I been lying awake?

(Why have I been lying awake?
Why have I been lying awake?)
Who knows, let it go
So close, I can feel it coming
Let it, just like before
So close, I can feel it coming back
Coming back
Coming back, coming back
Coming back, coming back
Coming back, coming back
Coming back, coming back

Never in the right place
Always in the wrong place with you
Turning down the runway with you
