

Hello Echo

Eli & Fur

You're calling me out for a moment
A moment that's still far away
You give me the words yet unspoken
Familiar but not the same
Screaming through the silence
Hello, echo

Tell me where you're hiding
And I follow
Noises from the future
Tell me more than I should know
Screaming through the silence
Hello, echo

Hello, echo

Trouble with love is the falling

Promise me something that's broken
I know we'll find the way

Screaming through the silence
Hello, echo
Tell me where you're hiding
And I follow
Noises from the future
Tell me more than I should know
Screaming through the silence
Hello, echo

Hello, echo
