

My Reflection

Eli & Fur

You're like an atlas
Somewhere that don't exist
Up where the clouds never reach
Oh, all that I need's direction
Maybe it's magic
Maybe I like control
But you're still the sand on my skin
The dust in the wind

And so it goes, I had your love
Now I can't live without it
I can't live without
You
While
You're
Stirring my reflection
Ohhh
I can't live without
You
While
You're
Stirring my reflection
Ohhh
(I can't live without)

You're like a magnet
My compass hooked on you
Taking me further away
Only to make me madder
Maybe it's perfect
Maybe I lack control
'Cause you're still the coin in the air
And I don't know where it leaves me
Heads or tails
Wings or sails
Where do I go when you're looking back at me

And so it goes, I had your love
Now I can't live without it
I can't live without
You
While
You're
Stirring my reflection
Ohhh
I can't live without
You
While
You're
Stirring my reflection
Ohhh
(I can't live without)
