Kissing Your Tattoos

Eli Lieb

Don't know if it's love or just a fling
Push you out or pull you in again
Maybe just a midnight rendezvous
But I'll stay here kissing all of your tattoos

And I've got a complex and fickle mind
And I can't pretend to love
So let me just kiss you this one last time

Yeah, I think it's just a one night thing
Sorry if you wanted more of me
Maybe just a midnight rendezvous
But I'll stay here kissing all of your tattoos

Wonder who you know and where you've been
Do you have a lot of one night stands
Touching every inch of you in the dark
Sometimes I don't know when to stop

And I've got a complex and fickle mind
And I can't pretend to love
So let me just kiss you one last time

Yeah, I think it's just a one night thing
Sorry if you wanted more of me
Maybe just a midnight rendezvous
But I'll stay here kissing all of your tattoos
Gonna stay here hissing your tattoos
Gonna stay here kissing your tattoos
Maybe just a midnight rendezvous
