

The Nights We Lived

Eli Lieb

When I was 20 I moved to New York City
Couldn't wait to feel the pavement beneath me
Couldn't wait to act just like a fool
I'm tripping home drunk with someone who was pretty
Not going to sleep until the light hits the city
Waking up in the afternoon

'Cause those were the days to remember
And those were the nights we lived
Making our lives to remember and say
Those were the nights we lived, oh-oh
Oh-oh

When I was 25 I buried my father
But before he severed the last of his karma
There was one thing he said to me
He said live your life like there's nobody stronger
Live in love with your mom and your brother
'Cause nothing lasts except the memories

'Cause these are the days to remember
And these are the nights we lived
Making our lives to remember and say
These are the nights we lived, oh-oh
Oh-oh

When I was 29 I fell in love with a monster
Hidden in the sly cloak of a charmer
Plotting to destroy all of me
That's when I learned what love and abuse was Yeah I think I still have a few of his scars
If you look closely you can see

But those were the days to remember
And those were the nights we lived
Making our lives to remember and say
Those were the nights we lived, oh-oh
Oh-oh
Oh-oh
Oh-oh

But those were the days to remember
And those were the nights we lived
Making our lives to remember and say
Those were the nights we lived, oh-oh
Oh-oh

these are the days to remember (Oh-oh)
And these are the nights we lived (Oh-oh)
Making our lives to remember and say
These are the nights we lived, oh-oh
