

Until You've Fallen Down

Eli Lieb

I've seen the darkest kinda night
Where you can't even see the sky
I've walked these streets a million times
Blindfolded looking for a sign

You can't strike lightning
Without a thunderstorm
You can't rush nights end
Waiting on the new dawn
And if you're lost
You will be found
Sometimes you can't get up
Until you've fallen down
You can't get up
Until you've fallen down

Do you ever feel like giving up
Like your best just ain't enough
You find it hard to give your trust
You get so tired of playing tough

You can't strike lightning
Without a thunderstorm
You can't rush nights end
Waiting on the new dawn
And if you're lost
You will be found
Sometimes you can't get up
Until you've fallen down
You can't get up
Until you've fallen down

(Until you've fallen down)

You can't strike lightning
Without a thunderstorm
You can't rush nights end
Waiting on the new dawn
And if you're lost
You will be found
Sometimes you can't get up
Until you've fallen down
You can't get up
Until you've fallen down
You can't get up
Until you've fallen down
