

Blame

Eli Sostre

Leave you alone
She would probably curse you out and unplug her phone
I bet she'd be glad that you was gone
And then she wouldn't have to worry

Tell me what's your story do you still miss it?
When we get together do you feel different?
Now the days go we don't even speak
I been on the road it been like a week
Feelin' insecure, who you think I'm with?
She said that you only love me when you lit
Imma hit the call on the celly
Ring ring heard a couple niggas jealous
Oh well, ain't nothin' they can tell us
I guess I got some pussy niggas in they feelings
In the summertime whippin' with no ceilings
I ain't 'round and I know you miss the feeling
Yeah, yeah, yeah

Say you never changed on me
Tell me who you really love?
You can put the blame on me
Tell me that I ain't enough
Say you never changed on me
Tell me who you really love? (Yeah)
You can put the blame on me
Tell me that I ain't enough

Tell me I can't live up to your standards
Tell me that I'm way too hard to handle
I got too many bitches up in my phone
I ain't tryna get you caught up in the scandal
We chillin' at the hotel
Said your man keep callin' oh well
Kill the vibe, yeah he kill the vibe
Come and fuck with me you should be livin' life
Yeah

Say you never changed on me
Tell me who you really love?
You can put the blame on me
Tell me that I ain't enough
Say you never changed on me
Tell me who you really love? (Yeah)
You can put the blame on me
Tell me that I ain't enough

Leave you alone
She would probably curse you out and unplug her phone
I bet she'd be glad that you was gone
And then she wouldn't have to worry
