

Falling Apart

Eli Sostre

If it hurts you too much, you shouldn't stay
If you love me too much, you shouldn't stay
When your heart is so broke, you run away
When your heart is so broke, you run away

Think about you from the mornin' to the night
I've been up, I'm hopin' that you sleep alright, hmm
Thinkin' I'm fallin' apart
Oh, oh-oh-oh
Thinkin' I'm breakin' your heart

Baby I can't fall back, from you
Both got a past
But this shit make me laugh
Yeah I like my hoes in the dirt
Yeah I like when she go grass
I can never put you first
'Cause you gon' put me last

If it hurts you too much, you shouldn't stay
If you love me too much, you shouldn't stay
When your heart is so broke, you run away
When your heart is so broke, you run away

Think about you from the mornin' to the night
I've been up, I'm hopin' that you sleep alright, hmm
Thinkin' I'm fallin' apart
Oh, oh-oh-oh
Thinkin' I'm breakin' your heart

Baby I can't fall back, from you
Both got a past
But this shit make me laugh
Yeah I like my hoes in the dirt
Yeah I like when she go grass
I can never put you first
'Cause you gon' put me last

Thinkin' I'm fallin' apart
Oh, oh-oh-oh
Thinkin' I'm breakin' your heart
When it's cold I'm emotional
'Cause my soul got sold to you
Don't forget to leave to house with it
It's no way that I'ma go with you
Saturday comes and Saturday goes, yeah
I'm tellin' you things, you already know
That's something you will never do
You never waste a breath on truth
I had some real bad habits too
I left those parts of me in you
