Got all my game from the block

Baby, I don't need nothin', yeah
Made two-fifty then I doubled it
Not the one that you want trouble with

Got a Mansion estate, yeah
We just moved, switched the place, yeah
We've been blowin' up the place, yeah

That just life, it's what you make it
Yeah, she do that shit amazin'

The sun don't shine no more but I feel alive
When I look for the light, baby girl, I look in your eyes, yeah
When you touch on me, you keep me so satisfied, yeah
When you touch on me, you keep me so satisfied, yeah
The sun don't shine no more but I feel alive
When I look for the light, baby girl, I look in your eyes, yeah
When you touch on me, you keep me so satisfied, yeah
When you touch on me, you keep me so satisfied, yeah
The sun don't shine no more but I feel alive
When I look for the light, baby girl, I look in your eyes, yeah
When you touch on me, you keep me so satisfied, yeah
When you touch on me, you keep me so satisfied, yeah
