All Black Everything

Elijah Blake

I'm so sick without ya baby
Not even a doctor can save me now
Pick up the phone, why you playing?
You know I hate leaving voice mails, but fuck it
I'ma spill my heart out at the tone
If you don't call me back, that's how I know
You probably sound someone else and you've moved on
So I'ma get in my whip and passed your home

Pullin' up in all black everything, 3 miles an hour
Girl you know I'd do anything, just don't say it's over
I'm in all black everything, standing in the pouring rain
Who's car's in the driveway? You better start talking

No, no, no, no, oh, go
I'll never stop loving you, you
No, no, no, no, oh, go
I just can't stop loving you, you, you
All black everything, I'm seeing all black everything
I'm seeing all black everything now, now

I'll bang on this door 'til you answer, cause I know you're in there with an other
You can try to stall all you wanna, just don't let me catch that fool, or it
's on and poppin'
Cause it ain't even been a week, now you're giving away what belongs to me
All the lights are down and the blinds are closed
So I'm making my way, making my way to the back door

All black everything, 3 miles an hour
Girl you know I'd do anything, just don't say it's over
I'm in all black everything, standing in the pouring rain
Who's car's in the driveway? You better start talking

No, no, no, no, oh, go
I'll never stop loving you, you
No, no, no, no, oh, go
I just can't stop loving you, you, you
All black everything, I'm seeing all black everything
I'm seeing all black everything now, now

Pullin' up in all black everything, 3 miles an hour
Girl you know I'd do anything, just don't say it's over
I'm in all black everything, standing in the pouring rain
Who's car's in the driveway? You better start talking

No, no, no, no, oh, go
I'll never stop loving you, you
No, no, no, no, oh, go
I just can't stop loving you, you, you

I ain't leaving babe
So you come out iof this house an tell me what this is about Who's 2007 Mercedes is sittin' in our driveway?
I can't take it baby, no
