

Birdz

Elijah Blake

[Girl:] Elijah?
[Elijah:] What, what?
[Girl:] So you just gon' sit here and look at her like that? like I'm not standing here?
[Elijah:] I wasn't looking at nothing, I told you, I won't be stuntin' g these birds
[Girl:] So you gon' sit here and tell me you weren't look at her ass?
[Elijah:] I told you about bringing these chicks 'round here, they ai n't really your friends. You're too quick to trust these shorties

Have a whiff of this
Won't you take a sip of this?
The absolute truth, I made it just for you.
You always wanna trip
When I say she's just a friend
Nothing I do is ever good enough proof
One day, some day
You're gonna say I'm nothing like them other niggers
But now you can't see my words are true and it's all about you

I don't trust these birds
I don't love these birds
I don't trust these birds
I don't love these birds
I don't trust these birds
I don't love these birds
No I don't love these
I don't love these

Whatever you want it, whatever you want it
Whatever you want it, whatever you want it

What the hell is this?
We fighting over bullshit
I can't win for losing
When better, ain't good enough
What's a game without a risk?
Will we ever call it bliss?
Maybe I'm just confused?
And I don't wanna lose you
One day, some day
You're gonna say I'm nothing like them other niggers
But now you can't see my words are true and it's all about you

And it always be the same ones
Got their hands where they don't belong
And I thought I had your trust, baby
But I guess I was wrong

I don't love these, I don't trust these, no I don't love these birds
I don't love these, I don't trust these, no I don't love these birds
