

Frenemies

Elijah Blake

Trust nobody, man I had to learn the hard way
Trust nobody, real niggas dyin' every day
Trust nobody, watch them frenemies who love to hate
No-no, no-no, I don't
Trust nobody, man I had to learn the hard way
Shooters shootin' over pennies, I ain't talkin' hardaway
Trust nobody, watch them frenemies who love to hate
No-no, no-no, I don't

I just seen a nigga lose his life over some Yeezys
Nowadays you better off coppin' your shit off eBay
Fashion killers on the move, they want that shit the free way
You can be broke long as you fly, you might catch you a new bae
See the niggas in the side just to leave the wifey
Bro what happened to them vows and all the matrimony
And to make it even worse you cheated with you family
Not your blood but you still call the family

When we were kids, we ruled the world, yeah
We were stupid lit
They never test it 'cause they know we with the shits
The reputation, bad brothers on our tip
But that was then man, I'm just tryna live

Trust nobody, man I had to learn the hard way
Trust nobody, real niggas dyin' every day
Trust nobody, watch them frenemies who love to hate
No-no, no-no, I don't
Trust nobody, man I had to learn the hard way
Shooters shootin' over pennies, I ain't talkin' hardaway
Trust nobody, watch them frenemies who love to hate
No-no, no-no, I don't

When they see you gettin' paper, they be all up in your pockets
Where were you when I was broke and I had no deposits?
I was down and out and now my life is just the opposite
Free all of my zoes, Palm Beach to Orlando
Dawg I miss my cuzzo Mordis
Out there doin' time for murder
We still waitin' on the verdict
Doin' the day now
I still reach out to your sister, just to let her know we miss you
Still remember all the crazy days

When we were kids, we ruled the world, yeah
We were stupid lit
They never test it 'cause they know we with the shits
The reputation, bad brothers on our tip
But that was then man, I'm just tryna live

Trust nobody, man I had to learn the hard way
Trust nobody, real niggas dyin' every day
Trust nobody, watch them frenemies who love to hate
No-no, no-no, I don't
Trust nobody, man I had to learn the hard way
Shooters shootin' over pennies, I ain't talkin' hardaway
Trust nobody, watch them frenemies who love to hate

No-no, no-no, I don't
