

Further Notice

Elijah Blake

Yeah
Yeah
Mmh
(Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)

On the low, on the low
Why you sellin' on the low?
When your best friend called
It's like you're talkin' in code
Wanna know, wanna know
Why you always on the go?
Turn down the brightness on your phone
Stay woke, stay woke
Stay woke, stay woke
Why you clingin' to the old?
Still textin' your hoes
Talkin' 'bout it's your dough
Wonder why I'm so cold
'Cause I know how the game go
And baby, that's a no-no
Gotta leave you alone

I don't understand, no, I can never understand
You say you got nothing to hide, no, nothing to hide
But you never introduced me to your friend

So right now, it's fuck you until further notice
I need to take some time to get back my focus, yeah
I knew you'd make this all about you when I rolled in
No, I don't hate you, it's just fuck you until further notice

And you know this, you know this, 'til further notice
Maybe you know this, you know this, 'til further notice

New day, new vibe, brand new wave
Gettin' to the money, need no problems on the way
Tell that nigga Jay to text you after midnight
Thank you 'cause we always fuck the best after we fight

I don't understand, no, I can never understand
You say you got nothing to hide, no, nothing to hide
But you never introduced me to your friend
(Are you tryna be a secret love?)

So right now, it's fuck you until further notice
I need to take some time to get back my focus, yeah
I knew you'd make this all about you when I rolled in
No, I don't hate you, it's just fuck you until further notice

Further notice, we gon' know this
Fuck you 'til further notice, hope you know this
I'm so focused
And I get in my feelings
Yellin' and throwin' shit, babe
But I'm only human
Right now I don't wanna think 'bout you

Right now, it's fuck you until further notice
I need to take some time to get back my focus, yeah
I knew you'd make this all about you when I rolled in
No, I don't hate you, it's just fuck you until further notice

We ain't cool and we ain't homies
Please don't text me no emotions (Until)
Baby, you know this, you know this (Further notice, further notice)
