

Give Me U

Elijah Blake

Give me you, ah ah ah ah ah
Give me you, ah ah ah ah ah

I remember conversations in the dark
Before we'd lie we'd hope to die and cross our hearts
Bout anything, and everything we were young
Memories of you embedded in these scars
Cause in the end, the night is written in the stars
Awakening, you belong to me

I don't want a sky that's falling
I don't wanna have no moon
Baby cause it's now or nothing
Give me you
I wanna set your sex on fire
Till we both burning through
But I don't need a match or lighter
Just give me you

Give me you, ah ah ah ah ah

Give me you, ah ah ah ah ah

Feeling sorry never seems to get you far
It ain't what you're dealt but how you play the cards
You turn away, ace of spades, fire away
Just be sure that when you shoot you hit your mark
Cause I won't stop until we're back to who we are
You could take away everything but you belong to me

Give me you, ah ah ah ah ah
Give me you, ah ah ah ah ah

I hear your voice in my head, it said
Take a hit, count to ten, hold it in
Said I don't need you
But I live and breathe you
