

Must Be Crazy

Elijah Blake

Cosby show don't show no more
Cuz cliff and class stay together
But Romeo and Juliet died
That's why Shakespeare is forever
And whats love without some crazy shit?
That's a love I'm not sure you can believe in
That's why half of us are afraid of it
And the other half up in the deep end

I know I love you
And that's how I know I must be, crazy
I know I love you
And that's how I know I must be, crazy

They calling me crazy
They say I'm in shame
To keep on calling you baby
Though you do me this way

That's why I never trust a bitch that keep her phone face down
Why your phone face down?
Vibrate off, ringer never up loud
See that's the type of chick you only freak face down
Ass up, face down
Cuz expressions never match the lies they telling you now

Hey now, but

I know I love you
And that's how I know I must be, crazy
I know I love you
And that's how I know I must be, crazy

They calling me crazy
They say I'm in shame
To keep on calling you baby
When you do me this way
They calling me crazy
They say I'm in insane
To keep on calling you baby
Though you do me this way

They say I'm in shame
To keep on calling you baby
Though you do me this way
They calling me crazy
They say I'm Insane, mmmm
To keep on calling you baby
Though you do me this way

Sometimes the love low free
Sometimes the love gets stuck
Cuz in the morning we fight
But in the evening we.. you know
You know
