Rendezvous

Elijah Blake

One o'clock. On the dot. Slide in I pull up on you
Pushing that tongue while I do
We've been good friends, since the 10th grade
Even our birthdays, are off by just a couple days
You all up in the mirror, putting on eyelashes and shit
Bet you all up in the mirror missing how you're riding that d
I been ridin', ridin', ridin' through the city
I've been playing slick and hard, and fooling around
Some single shit, liquor shit, nigga shit, they know
Choosing, choosing, choosing all the shit I'm doing
Is a distraction just call it acting... to get a reaction
Oh baby I swear you do that shit on purpose
Sending me smiley faces, acting nervous
When you gon' show your inside on the surface?
Isn't it worth it? Don't I deserve it?
Oh I wonder if he knew, what his angel bout to do...

While the whole world is sleeping, you got me creeping
The whole world is sleeping, you've got me creeping
We've got a rendezvous

So can you meet at the block by the stiletto store

Right by the family diner, unlocked black Monte Carlo
High beams off, hazards on
Are you fresh yet, still in the shower or in the car?
Please don't be too, Please don't be too fancy
Bringing them Vicky's just to, lose them in my backseat
She said can we roll up Swish afterwards so we can just get gone
I said I don't smoke anymore baby girl but you can still get yours
Puff, puff, puff, puff you can have that shit
Is that ass getting fatter let me grab that shit, yeah
I said you the truest if you make it back without him knowing
She said he don't even know I left the screen door open
Oh I wonder if he knew what his angel bout to do

While the whole world is sleeping, you got me creeping
The whole word is sleeping, you've got me creeping
We got a rendezvous

Could you roll, roll through?
One time [x7]
(repeat x4)

The whole world is sleeping (I get lonely)
You've got me creeping (I get lonely)

We got a rendezvous
