

Shouldn't Wanna Call

Elijah Blake

I shouldn't wanna call
I should be up on your page
I shouldn't even care at all
But I miss my whoa anyway

I just rolled past your block
Tonight's our anniversary
I'm headed to the studio
So you can feel my words through the pain

Where do we go when it all goes wrong?
What do we do when the thrill is gone?

One thing I know
Two things for sure
Three things for certain
You were supposed to be my person
Who would have known this last
Heartbreak would be the worst one
If I don't know nothing else
When I think about it

One thing I know
Two things for sure
Three things for certain
You were supposed to be my person
Who would have known this last
Heartbreak would be the worst one
If I don't know nothing else
When I think about it

Oh, I shouldn't wanna call
I know I shouldn't be on your page
I know I shouldn't care at all
But I miss your face anyway

I was on the way home
But I drove past your block (past your block)
Did you forget what today was (our anniversary)
Headed over to the studio (so you can feel my words through the pain)

Where do we go when it all goes wrong?
What do we do when the thrill is gone?

One thing I know
Two things for sure
Three things for certain
You were supposed to be my person
Who would have know this last
Heartbreak would be the worst one
If I don't know nothing else
When I think about it

One thing I know
Two things for sure
Three things for certain
You were supposed to be my person

Who would have known this last
Heartbreak would be the worst one
If I don't know nothing else
When I think about it

Ah...

You'll always be my favorite person
You'll always be my favorite person
