

break me

elijah

I know that you can't tell
But I been staying busy fighting with myself
Stressing out, feeling so overwhelmed
I think there's something wrong with me (Wrong with me)
There's someone in my head
Screaming telling me I'm so worthless
It scares me to death, so I play pretend
Like there's nothing wrong with me (Wrong with me)

But it's got so old dying alone
Can you hear me crying for hope?
There's nothing left but one more breath
But one more breath

Somebody break me down (Break me down)
Read between every lie I say
Break me out (Break me out)
Of this prison I built from my mistakes
I don't wanna hide, I don't wanna fight anymore
Running out of time, gotta find a light before
It's too late now
Oh, somebody break me down
Break me down (Break me down, break me down...)

I think I've gone blind (Blind)
Numb to pain inside my mind (Mind)
Honestly, I don't even wanna find (Find)
If there's something wrong with me (Wrong with me)

But it's got so old dying alone
Can you hear me crying for hope?
There's nothing left but one more breath
But one more breath

Somebody break me down (Break me down)
Read between every lie I say
Break me out (Break me out)
Of this prison I built from my mistakes
I don't wanna hide, I don't wanna fight anymore
Running out of time, gotta find a light before
It's too late now
Oh, somebody break me down
Oh, break me down

Break me
B-B-B-Break, break me down
Break me
B-B-B-Break, break me down
Break me
B-B-B-Break, break me down
Break me
B-B-B-Break me down

(Break me down)
Break me down, I'm covered in bruises
Right now, I feel so useless
Save me now before it gets too late

I'm calling me out

Somebody break me down (Break me down)
Read between every lie I say
Break me out (Break me out)
Of this prison I built from my mistakes
I don't wanna hide, I don't wanna fight anymore
Running out of time, gotta find a light before
It's too late now
Oh, somebody break me down
Oh, break me down

Break me
B-B-B-Break, break me down
Break me
B-B-B-Break, break me down (Break me down)
Break me
B-B-B-Break, break me down
Break me
B-B-B-Break me

I know that you can't tell
But I been staying busy fighting with myself
Stressing out, feeling so overwhelmed
I think there's something wrong with me
