Hostage

elijah

Lay in bed alone at night awake
Stuck inside the walls that I create
Paralyzed by all my own mistakes
How can I escape

I need a sign of hope
Something to break this curse
But I can't cut the rope

I'm my own worst enemy, enemy
I lock myself away in misery, and lost the key
I'm going crazy losing sanity, sanity
Right when I think that I got it
I'm back in the cage that I'm locked in
I hold myself
Hostage!

I'd pull away away but both my hands are tied Punishment is 25 to life
Bleeding out don't know if I'll survive
How if I'll survive

I'm my own worst enemy, enemy
I lock myself away in misery, and lost the key
I'm going crazy losing sanity, sanity
Right when I think that I got it
I'm back in the cage that I'm locked in
I hold myself
Hostage

I try to find the find the silver lining in the darkness
Why do I always end up right back where I started
I try to find the find the silver lining in the darkness
Why do I always end up right back where I started

Somebody set me free!

I'm my own worst enemy, enemy
I lock myself away in misery, and lost the key
I'm going crazy losing sanity, sanity
Right when I think that I got it
I'm back in the cage that I'm locked in
I hold myself
Hostage

Enemy, enemy
I lock myself away in misery, and lost the key
Hold myself hostage
I'm back in the cage that I'm locked in I hold myself
Hostage!
