

Stitches

elijah

I guess I'm just stitches for you
Fixing what broke you

Why do I care?
Why do I do this to myself?
It's not fucking fair
You're keeping my heart on your shelf
You said you need me, and then you lied
And I believed it too many times
You tried to cover it up
That you're not still in love
And he's not on your mind
Tonight

I guess I'm just stitches for you
Fixing what broke you
Don't lie and say it's not true
You're just using me to
Bury all your memories
Shattered heart and broken dreams
I guess I'm just stitches for you
Did you know you're killing me too? (Too, too, too)

I'm just a fucking phase
You only care about yourself
Don't try to cover it up
I'm never enough
Just leave me alone to die
Tonight

I guess I'm just stitches for you
Fixing what broke you
Don't lie and say it's not true
You're just using me to
Bury all your memories
Shattered heart and broken dreams
I guess I'm just stitches for you
Did you know you're killing me?

I fall, I lose
I'm broke, I'm bruised
Everytime, time
The pain cuts through
The knife it's you
And I die, die
And I'm just stitches for you
Fixing what broke you (Broke you, broke you)

I guess I'm just stitches for you
Fixing what broke you
Don't lie and say it's not true
You're just using me to
Bury all your memories
Shattered heart and broken dreams
I guess I'm just stitches for you
Did you know you're killing me too?

(I fall, I lose)
You're killing me
(The knife it's you)
I guess I'm just stitches for you
Fixing what broke you
