

UNDERRATED

elijah

(Just watch me, just watch me
Just watch me) Just watch me

I know what you think of me
I can hear every name you're calling me
Fuck you and the fake apologies
Only a bitch, talk shit behind a screen
I know what you really mean
You're stuck neck deep in jealousy
Throne of lies, but you're looking down on me
Who fucking died and made you king?

Don't blink, just watch me
Don't blink, just watch me

I'll always be the hated, most underrated
All the walls I'm breaking, you can't fucking take it
Don't look back, just say it, too late to fake it
You can try everything, but you're never gonna stop me
Motherfucker, don't blink, just watch me

Don't blink, just watch me

Yeah, do your worst
You can try till you die, but it's never gonna work
I'll break the curse
No name on the track, but when they hear this Everybody gonna know you make me fucking sick

You make me fucking sick
I'll climb my way to the top to take your crown
And when I find you there, I'll fucking kick you down

Don't blink, just watch me
Don't blink, just watch me

I'll always be the hated, most underrated
All the walls I'm breaking, you can't fucking take it
Don't look back, just say it, too late to fake it
You can try everything, but you're never gonna stop me
Motherfucker, don't blink, just wa-
I'll always be the hated, most underrated
All the walls I'm breaking, you can't fucking take it
Don't look back, just say it, too late to fake it
You can try everything, but you're never gonna stop me
Motherfucker, don't blink, just watch me

(Just watch me, just watch me
Just watch me, just watch me
Just watch me, just watch me)
Motherfucker, don't blink, just watch

Fuck you
