

He's way too gentle, has indiscretions when saying no
He picks up everybody so they won't feel so alone
No matter the drought, he still needs a flower to grow
Yeah everyone knows
That's what I love him for
But if he wants to love me more

Gimme contrast
A little push back
Give me bags packed
Yeah I want all of that
Gimme summer with some raindrops
Make my mind race
Make my heart stop
'Cause even lovers need a little space
And even love hurts in a crazy way
Say you're leaving just to come back
I don't wanna ask, but I want all of that

I'm picking battles
I'm letting him know the hurt is real
He's taking every opportunity to make a deal
'Cause when I'm knocked down he still needs the wound to heal
But that's not how it feels
I'm holding on for war
But will he ever show me more?

Gimme contrast
A little push back
Give me bags packed
Yeah I want all of that
Gimme summer with some raindrops
Make my mind race
Make my heart stop
'Cause even lovers need a little space
And even love hurts in a crazy way
Say you're leaving just to come back
I don't wanna ask, but

I want you to storm out
Want you to get mad
Make it hurt so good
Show that you give a damn
Not because I said so
I need you to let go
Baby cut the act
I want combat

Gimme contrast
A little push back
Give me bags packed
Yeah I want all of that
Make my mind race
Make my heart stop

Say you're leaving just to come back
I don't wanna ask, but I want all of that
