

Can I Make You Jealous?

ELIO

Picturing you with somebody new
Makes me feel nervous
But that means you're worth it

What would you do
If you thought you'd lose
Me to somebody
Yeah, I know you trust me

But I wish you would show that
You would fight to get me back
Even though you don't have to
Or want to

I wanna be your center of attention
Yeah, this is me testing our connection
All I want is to get a real reaction
And I wonder, can I make you jealous?
If I'm out doing something reckless
Would you notice, would you get the message
Said you want me now show me how you meant it
Yeah, I wonder, can I make you jealous?

He's into me and I'm in between
You and this feeling
Me being needed
I wanna be gold
Not just someone you hold
When life ain't easy
But you're gonna leave me

Yeah, I wish you would show that
You would fight to have my back
Even though you don't have to
Or want to

I wanna be your center of attention
Yeah, this is me testing our connection
All I want is to get a real reaction
And I wonder, can I make you jealous?
If I'm out doing something reckless
Would you notice, would you get the message
Said you want me now show me how you meant it
Yeah, I wonder, can I make you jealous?

I'm under your thumb
Over my head
Under my sheets
Can we skip to the end
Where we make it make sense (again)
Can I change you into a good man?
Can I make you wanna want me again?
Can I make you understand?
Can I make you jealous?

Picturing you with somebody new
Makes me feel nervous

But that means you're worth it
