

How do you feel
That I just made you a playlist? Ah
Listen to it
When you're flying over Vegas, ah

I bet I'll think of you tonight
Rolling my eyes and holding onto time
And I miss you so much, I wanna die
Can you call me?

Mmm, we're talking just to waste time
Mmm, and I don't wanna say goodbye, goodbye
When you get this, can you ring me back?
Can you hear me now? Oh
Call me when you're done with that
Can you hear me now? Oh
Mmm, as we disconnect on FaceTime in real life, oh

Can you hear me now? Mmm
Can you hear me now? Oh

Know I'm not there, but
Just phone me if you need me, me
Sent you something
Just to listen as you're driving through to Tennessee, but

I hope you think of me tonight
Holding my hands and telling me you're mine
And I miss you so much, I wanna die
Can you call me?

Mmm, we're talking just to waste time
Mmm, and I don't wanna say goodbye, goodbye
When you get this, can you ring me back?
Can you hear me now? Oh
Call me when you're done with that
Can you hear me now? Oh
Mmm, as we disconnect on FaceTime in real life, oh

'Cause life keeps cruising and I'm still frozen here
Lines keep moving no matter how slow they seem
For the time being, I'm fine being here

We're talking just to waste time, ah
And I don't wanna say goodbye, goodbye
When you get this, can you ring me back?
Can you hear me now? Oh
Call me when you're done with that
Can you hear me now? Oh
Mmm, as we disconnect on FaceTime in real life, oh

'Cause life keeps cruising and I'm still frozen here (We're talking just to waste time)
Lines keep moving no matter how slow they seem (Waste time)
For the time being, I'm fine being here
