

hurts 2 hate somebody

ELIO

Well, there must be a reason
'Cause I used to lose teeth
Now all I lose is people
And I talk to my mama
She says I need Jesus (You need Jesus)
Like I don't wanna pick fights, I just wanna stay peaceful
I'm so tired of resenting, yeah

I don't need a jury
'Cause I won't say I'm sorry, no
Yeah, I could go be alone on my own
The comfort of lonely

I wish I could forgive and forget
I'm so sick of feeling salty
It hurts to hate somebody
Sometimes I just wish we'd never met
'Cause I'd rather feel nothing
If it hurts to hate somebody

I'll keep counting my losses
And if there's no coming back from the lines that you crossed, then
I guess I'll keep holding your heartache as hostage
I don't wanna pick fights, but don't know how to stop it
I'm so tired of resenting, yeah

I wish I could forgive and forget
I'm so sick of feeling salty
It hurts to hate somebody
Sometimes I just wish we'd never met
'Cause I'd rather feel nothing
If it hurts to hate somebody

Maybe I should know better
Than wasting time wishing you're dead
I'm not trying to be clever
I just wanna feel better
Wanna wake up and forget that you're not around

I wish I could forgive and forget
I'm so sick of feeling salty
It hurts to hate somebody
Sometimes I just wish we'd never met
'Cause I'd rather feel nothing
If it hurts to hate somebody
I wish I could forgive and forget
I'm so sick of feeling salty
It hurts to hate somebody
Sometimes I just wish we'd never met
'Cause I'd rather feel nothing
If it hurts to hate somebody
