

Off my chest

ELIO

I have anxiety
You have anxiety
We have anxiety together
My heart is racing
I can't read properly
But it's all good
Because we have anxiety together

Rose-colored glasses change the way that I remember the past
Can't tell the difference between good and bad when I'm looking back
If the grass is greener I guess I never watered my lawn
Took it for granted when I know one day it's gonna be gone
Should spend more time in the moment and less on where I went w rong

Take the weight off my chest
Don't want it anymore
If it's all in my head
Finally closing the door on what happened
Don't know what comes next but I'm moving on from
The weight on my chest

(Rose-colored glasses change the way that I remember the past)
(Can't tell the difference between good and bad when I'm lookin g back)
(The grass is greener I guess I never watered my lawn)
(Took it for granted when I know one day it's gonna be gone)
(The grass is greener I guess I never watered my lawn)
(Took it for granted when I know one day it's gonna be gone)
(Should spend more time in the moment and less on where I went wrong)
(But every time I try to move I got a weight to get off)
