

Beautiful Night

Elisa

A beautiful night's a beautiful night

its colourful soul's embracing my song and a cello's playing in my head
just for me
and a new desire is blowing sounds
in my ear

shall I go for a smile? Shall I or shall I keep it to myself?
but I would share it with you
if you could understand...
a beautiful night's a beautiful night

my happiness came like sand in the wind oh I think I saw a little poem falling off a star...
oh, I think I saw it choosing your eyes
as a place to spend time...

shall I go for a smile? Shall I or
shall I keep it to myself?
but I could share it with you, if you can understand...

can I... can I step into your world?
can I... can I step into your world?
can I... can I step into your world?

a cello's playing in my head
just for me
and a new desire is blowing sounds
in my ear
and I think I saw a little poem
falling off a star...
and I think I saw it choosing your eyes
as a place to spend time...

shall I go for a smile? Shall I or
shall I keep it to myself?
but I would share it with you
if you could understand...
