

Hope

Elisa

Such a pretty house, take a look around
Sun is coming up, can you feel it now?
Underneath your feet, it's been crumbling down
'Cause it was never built on solid ground
Welcome to the wild (Mm)
You shouldn't be surprised (Mm)

There's no hope
If we all keep on building walls on hope
For the lost souls
There's no hope
If we all keep on building walls on hope
For the lost souls

For the lost souls
No hope
For the lost souls
No hope

So add a little paint to another layer
Cover up the crap, so you'll feel better
Just to get caught in another cage
Till they'll make you taste something new to chase
Welcome to the wild (Mm)
Though you shouldn't be surprised (Mm)

There's no hope
If we all keep on building walls on hope
For the lost souls
There's no hope
If we all keep on building walls on hope
For the lost souls

For the lost souls
No hope
For the lost souls
No hope

Got to carry on
Until the dawn
Got to carry on
Until the dawn
Got to carry on
Until the dawn
Got to carry on
Till the dawn, till the dawn

If there's hope
Then we all gotta bring down every wall
Till the last one falls
If there's hope
Then we all gotta bring down every wall
Till the last one falls
Till the last one falls
No hope
Until the last one falls
No hope

Until the last one falls
No hope
No hope

Got to carry on
Got to carry on
