

One Step Away

Elisa

One step away
From all I want
And I know it's all here

Afraid to move
Afraid to choose
Afraid of my own fear

Of times when I may not be strong
Places were I may not belong

But I hold on
To this feeling
That stands above all feelings
Tellin' me not to let go

And I live on
This feeling
The greatest of all feelings
Tellin' me not to grow cold

Please help me get through
And let me in you
