

All The Time

Elizabeth Cook

Well, I'm crazy 'bout you baby,
it don't do no good,
I could tell it to the movie out in Hollywood.
I'd tell it when I'm sober and
I'd tell it on the wine,
I'd tell it to the judge,
I love you all the time.

I'd chase you down that mountain
,and I'd chase you up that creek,
I'd chase you startin'
Sunday through the end of the week.
Go ask your mama
and see if she don't mind.
You've got to know by now I love you all the time.
You've got to know by now I love you all the time.

I don't like suspicion layin' in my bed.
Do you want to wander, or do you want to wed?
As soon as I start thinkin'
everything is fine
you come up here askin, 'Baby, what's my sign?

You've got to know by now I love you all the time
