

Bones

Elizabeth Cook

I wear your bones around my neck
I am the keeper of the flame
Yes it's true I've been a wreck
But I love you just the same
Tonight I'll play another show
I'll feel high then I'll feel low
Then I'll do a double-check
I wear your bones around my neck

Diggy Liggy La and Diggy Liggy Lo
Wonder if they're still a go
If they take the time to dance
A flash in the underpants
Can't hear the wind til it moves trees, ugh
Here are our nominees
With their heart attack in tow
Diggy Liggy La, Diggy Liggy Lo

Let's take time to recognize
All the very best goodbye
How they paved a solemn path
In their brutal aftermath
Listen for the rattlesnake
Hear that weeping willow ache
There's no slowing down the skies
Let's take time to recognize

I wear your bones around my neck
I am the keeper of the flame
Yes it's true I've been a wreck
But I love you still the same
Tonight I'll play another show
I'll talk on the radio
Then I'll do a double-check
I wear your bones around my neck
