

Not Enough Lovin' Left

Elkie Brooks

There's not enough lovin' left
In this old heart of mine
In this old valentine

Baby, give me a reason
Why I should try again
Maybe the pain is easing
But I don't want to die again

I feel so used up
I feel so bereft
There's only sadness and sorrow
I'm running on empty
With just enough left
To get me through one more tomorrow

In this old heart of mine
And no more tears to cry

In this old heart of mine
In this old valentine

I feel so defeated
'Cause you told me you felt trapped
But baby, when you cheated
Something something inside me snapped

"In this old heart of mine- Elkie Brooks

There was a time when my cup overflowed
When the sweet wine of love was still there
But you drained the cup
You drank it all up
And now the cupboard is bare

I said there's not enough lovin' left
In this old heart of mine
And no more tears to cry

In this old heart of mine
In this old valentine

I said there's not enough lovin' left
