

Where Do We Go From Here

Elkie Brooks

Where do we go from here
Where do we go from here
Where do we go?

Nobody knows
Where do we go from here
My, my, my, my, I'm a rich man's woman
Try to survive on a poor man's pay
Well I try and I try
To keep you satisfied
My, my, my, I'm a rich man's woman

You say I act like a millionaire's daughter
Spending your money like water
The way that I act
When you're breaking your back
A ten dollar bill is a quarter
My, my, my, my, I'm a rich man's woman

Try to survive on a poor man's pay
Well I try and I try
To keep you satisfied
My, my, my, I'm a rich man's woman

Can't afford to pay my rent
Where do we go from here
Can't afford my fancy clothes

Where do we go?
Nobody knows
Where do we go from here
Where do we go from here
Where do we go from here
Where do we go from here
Where do we go?
Nobody knows
Where do we go from here

My, my, my, my, I'm a rich man's woman

Try to survive on a poor man's pay
Well I try and I try
To keep you satisfied
My, my, my, I'm a rich man's woman
My, my, my, my, I'm a rich man's woman

Try to survive on a poor man's pay
My, my, my, my, I'm a rich man's woman
Try to survive on a poor man's pay

My, my, my, my, I'm a rich man's woman
My, my, my, my, I'm a rich man's woman
My, my, my, my, I'm a rich man's woman