

Alone Too

Ella Eyre

Taking a hold of you're heart, in a way you never knew
But you fade in memory with the past
I can catching up with you
You drew a line, baby hold in you're own tears
And now you're heart, now you know you'll never forgive
Cause you're broke inside, broken soul, nothing to give
And nothing to fear with

I've been behind the walls you've been
I've been in all the rooms you've placed
I'm here to where you feel safe
Cause I've been alone too
I've been behind the doors you closed
The darkness that you've made your home
I know the things you think I don't
Cause I've been alone too

Can't find the heart to replace
There's a hole here left inside
Can't find the parts to replace
You're afraid to look behind
Crying out, but you found, that you can't speak
Shutting down, shutting out, all I can see is that Looking at you I start looking at me when I was you

I've been behind the walls you've been
I've been in all the rooms you've placed
I'm here to where you feel safe
Cause I've been alone too
I've been behind the doors you closed
The darkness that you've made your home
I know the things you think I don't
Cause I've been alone too

And I know, and I know
That you don't have to fight the dark
You don't have to wear those scars

Take in a hole of your soul
And I was the hardest part
And you taking back all your control
When you find the place to start

I've been behind the holes you made
I've been in other rules you've placed
I've been to where you feel safe
Cause I've been alone too
I've been behind the doors you closed
The darkness that you made your home
I know the things you think I don't
Cause I've been alone too

Taking a hold of your heart, in a way never knew
