

hell yeah

Ella Eyre

I'm a fool, yeah, that's me
I'm making promises I can't keep Told myself, "Stay till three"
And if I see you, I got to leave
Ooh, but then you walk into that
Room, might put you in an Uber
To my house and my sheets
Like a record on repeat

It's a quarter-life crisis, it's about time this
Twenty-something good-for-nothing got a new ride, and Found a good guy, uh, why am I like that?
Head's saying no, but my heart's saying, heart's saying

Hell yeah, I got no self-control
'Cause when you're right there, I don't want to go home
I kinda like it 'cause I know that it's wrong
My head's saying no, but my heart's saying, heart's saying
Hell yeah (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Hell yeah (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Hell yeah (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
My head's saying no, but my heart's saying, heart's saying

One more night, that's allowed
If I don't tell my girls, then it don't count
Heaven only knows 'bout a hell yeah
But I'm not heading home, not without ya, nah

Ooh, I know you like the way I
Move, yeah, I'ma show you later
At my house and my sheets
What's wrong with me

It's a quarter-life crisis, it's about time this
Twenty-something good-for-nothing got a new ride, and
Found a good guy, uh, why am I like that?
Head's saying no, but my heart's saying, heart's saying

Hell yeah, I got no self-control
'Cause when you're right there, I don't want to go home
I kinda like it 'cause I know that it's wrong
My head's saying no, but my heart's saying, heart's saying
Hell yeah (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Hell yeah (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Hell yeah (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
My head's saying no, but my heart's saying, heart's saying

Hell yeah, you're a happy mistake
Let me remind ya, I won't be taking your name
'Cause I'm a nightmare, so it's better this way
My head's saying no, but my heart's saying, heart's saying
Hell yeah, oh

Hell yeah, I got no self-control
'Cause when you're right there, I don't want to go home
I kinda like it 'cause I know that it's wrong
My head's saying no, but my heart's saying, heart's saying

Hell yeah (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Hell yeah (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
Hell yeah (Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah)
My head's saying no, but my heart's saying, heart's saying
(What?)
