

Cherry Red

Ella Fitzgerald

Right here pretty baby sit here on your mommas knee
I want to tell everybody how you've been sending me
Well now if that's you're secret you can keep it to yourself
Cause if you tell me you can bet ill tell someone else
I never loved and I hope I never will because a loving proposit ion will get somebody killed

Come on lead me pretty baby cause you know I can be led Squeeze me pretty baby yes until my face turns cherry red
Squeeze me pretty baby yes until my face turns cherry red
