

Everything I Didn't Say

Ella Henderson

Get the violins out
Been arguing, shot down again
Since I put the phone down
You're worrying, I'm struggling
This ain't the way we planned it
If you think I take you for granted
Then I've let myself down

With everything I didn't say to you
Like sorry for all my mistakes
'Cause I made a few
But you're still the one who taught me how to love
Baby, that's something I don't say enough
But now I'm causing both our hearts to break
With everything I didn't say
With everything I didn't say

Now you're asking questions
You bring it up, I bottle up
Even though there's tension
I don't wanna talk but I still love you
And you wear your feelings on your sleeve
I don't back down so easily
But if I don't mention

Everything I didn't say to you
Like sorry for all my mistakes
'Cause I made a few
But you're still the one who taught me how to love
And baby, that's something I don't say enough
And now I'm causing both our hearts to break
With everything I didn't say
Everything I didn't say

If I own up now, it just might save us
If I open up now, it just might save us
And everything I wish I'd said to you
And everything I wish I'd done
If I own up now, it just might save us

And everything I didn't say to you
Like sorry for all my mistakes
'Cause I made a few
But you're still the one who taught me how to love
And baby, that's something I don't say enough
And now I'm causing both our hearts to break
With everything I didn't say
Everything I didn't say
