

Five Tattoos

Ella Henderson

Tight jeans with a rip on the knee
So close but it ain't where I wanna be
And I'm loving every minute of your company
But have I read this all wrong

Maybe I move too fast
Or maybe I missed the sign
But baby this could last
You are the one thing on my mind

You are my one and only
My blue skies and grey
You are the only one for me

Brown eyes with your old woolly hat
Five tattoos from your shoulder to your hands
You could give me what I have never had Boy, keep leading me on

But maybe I move too fast
Or maybe I missed the sign
But baby this could last
You are the one thing on my mind

You are my one and only
My blue skies and grey
You are the only one for me
