

Friends

Ella Henderson

You watched me go through my first break up
We ate enough ice cream to never want more
When I need a pick me up, you pick me up
When I want to cry when my heart is stuck
You're the first one at my door

And the boyfriends they change
And so will our second names
But the one thing stays the same is us
We'll make dumb mistakes, 'cause we ain't to blame
'Cause they bring out the best in us

Friends, with you to the end
Fix you, help you bend, when it gets tough
And when you're scared, they'll be right there
So hold onto your friends, friends

I was right there when you struggled with Ryan
And you were right here when my dad went away
But all the weekends we stayed out
All the hangovers laid on the couch
Yeah, the times we don't talk about

And the boyfriends they change
And so will our second names
But the one thing stays the same is us
We'll make dumb mistakes, we ain't to blame
'Cause they bring out the best in us

Friends, with you to the end
Fix you, help you bend, when it gets tough
And when you're scared, they'll be right there
So hold onto your friends, friends

They'll be good times and bad times
They'll be trouble ahead
They'll be tears in mascara
And we'll all look a mess
What's a life without a drama?
Oh, so don't you forget, we're not close to broken yet
(We're not close to broken yet)
