

Set In Stone

Ella Henderson

Sitting underneath the night sky
We're in the land of the stars
You pull me closer, put your hand on mine
Just wanna stay where we are

If we ever end up alone
Darling, I just need you to know

I hope everytime I smile I get a wrinkle
So they can remind me of the stupid jokes
We would tell each other on the phone, hm
And I think 'bout the time my best friend really hurt me
When I cried, you held me till I fell asleep
So if we lose each other down the road
These memories are set in stone

Oh-oh
Oh-oh, oh-oh

Maybe one day I'll wake up
You won't be there by my side
'Cause we don't know where life's gon' take us
But so far it's been a hell of a ride

And if we ever end up alone
Darling, I just need you to know

I hope everytime I smile I get a wrinkle
So they can remind me of the stupid jokes
We would tell each other on the phone, oh
And I think 'bout the time my best friend really hurt me
When I cried, you held me till I fell asleep
So if we lose each other down the road
These memories are set in stone

Oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh-oh
Yeah, these memories are set in stone
Oh-oh
Oh-oh-oh-oh, hm

Sitting underneath the night sky
We're in the land of the stars
You pull me closer, put your hand on mine
Just wanna stay where we are
