

hungover

Ella Langley

One thing I know is I know this 'bout you
Your eyes get me drunk, stronger than hundred proof
And I've been drinkin' too much
And I need to quit it
It sucks wakin' up, I ain't scared to admit it
That, last night, I way overdid it

Yeah, I'm hungover
Still a long way from sober
Dammit, I'm hurtin'
This morning, I'm learning
How much that bourbon in your kiss don't lead to closure
And, yeah, I'm hungover

What we've been doin' ain't workin' at all
We say we're done then pickup at last call
This on again, off again is takin' its toll
I try but I can't seem to tell myself no
'Cause ya kiss me and I lose control

Yeah, I'm hungover
Still a long way from sober
Dammit, I'm hurtin'
This morning, I'm learning
How much that bourbon in your kiss don't lead to closure
Yeah, I'm hungover

This on again, off again is takin' its toll
I try but I can't seem to tell myself no

Yeah, I'm hungover
Still a long way from sober
Dammit, I'm hurtin'
This morning, I'm learning
How much that bourbon in your kiss don't lead to closure
And, yeah, I'm hungover
Yeah, I'm hungover
