

monsters

Ella Langley

I've got some real monsters livin' inside my head

There's a voice that speaks to me
Tellin' me everything I'll never be
Every secret that I try to hide
It shouts it out inside my mind
Everything I do seems wrong
Everywhere I go I don't belong

I've got some real monsters livin' inside my head
Memories I'd like to leave shoved up under my bed
Caught up in a bad dream, don't even have to sleep
To see every regret, take it from me
I've got some real monsters livin' inside my head, inside my-

I over-analyze
Let my worst critic criticize
Every last mistake I ever made
Every woulda, coulda, shoulda on replay

I've got some real monsters livin' inside my head
Memories I'd like to leave shoved up under my bed
Caught up in a bad dream, don't even have to sleep
To see every regret, take it from me
I've got some real monsters livin' inside my head, inside my head
Inside my head

Everything I do seems wrong
Everywhere I go, I don't belong

I've got some real monsters livin' inside my head
Memories I'd like to leave shoved up under my bed
Caught up in a bad dream, don't even have to sleep
To see every regret, take it from me
I've got some real monsters livin' inside my head, inside my head
Inside my head

Inside my head