

Perfect

Ella Langley

Tell me any stories if they don't end right
Sing me pretty songs
If you've forgotten all the lines
Tell me that it's raining
When the sun's supposed to shine
'Cause I just need you to be perfect all the time

Ooh-ooh ooooh oooh oooh
My standards really aren't so very high
'Cause I just need you to be perfect all the time

Can't describe a circle with all these crooked lines
Can't create a chorus if it doesn't rhyme
Can't do two times two with just division signs
'Cause I just need you to be perfect all the time

Ooh-ooh ooooh oooh oooh
Standards really aren't so very high
'Cause I just need you to be perfect all the time (hey)

Won't forget the way you said you love me
Won't forget the memories
And how you said it could be
I'll always set my sights this high
And if you want the reason why
I just need you to be perfect all the time (2-3-4)

Ooh-ooh ooooh oooh oooh
Ooh-ooh ooooh oooh oooh
Standards really aren't so very high
'Cause I just need you to be perfect all the time
'Cause I just need you to be perfect all the time
But hey nobody is perfect all the time
