

A Mess

Ella Mai

Know I need ya
Feel it deeper
I miss you when you're gone
My desire
In my heart
You are the one

You know I know, you know just where to find me
I'll be yours long as you're trying
Might get lost in the light so blinding
You pull me back, realign me

It's just different, they won't understand
We can't waste time trying to explain

I can fill the space
Where your heart might break
If you let me take it
Tell me it's okay
Let me ease your pain
If you feel the same

Know this might be a mess but yes
'Cause for me you're the best
I don't want nothing less
Can't lie, I must confess
For me you are the best
Know this might be a mess

We can't fight it
Don't want violence
When it's right it's right
Giving all, all of mine
On my mind
You're just my type

I know you know it's never perfect timing
Feels like I'm landing when you're flying
Right when I think it isn't vining
You hit me back to remind me

It's just different, they won't understand
We can't waste time trying to explain

I can fill the space
Where your heart might break
If you let me take it
Tell me it's okay
Let me ease your pain
If you feel the same

Know this might be a mess but yes
'Cause for me you're the best
I don't want nothing less

Know it should be easy but we make it hard
The only one that ever really knew my heart
When we get together it's like rain and storms
But when the sun comes up it's you who keeps me warm

You da best
No baby you da best
Ah baby you da best
Oh baby you're the best
No baby you the best
Oh no baby you the best
Ooh let's make a mess

Baby you da best
You know you the best
Ah baby you're the best
Oh no baby you're the best
The best
Oh the best
We're a fucking mess
