Love is so strange
You never know just what you'll find in the rain
Hard to explain
The type of ways I feel, you stuck on my brain

And it's been getting hard tryna fight it
Obviously my heart can't deny it
Used to pray for this feeling
You that one in a billion

Yeah you got me sounding soft
I ain't never been like that
Hard to the core, yeah I bite back
Tryna balance, I'm outta place
I don't even know what to say

You give me feelings
So many feelings
What a surprise
Who knew I'd ever find
So many feelings
Some I can't mention
Who knew I'd find
A place to hide

Remember I was lost in the wind
I was hurt, I was locked in a dark hole
Remember I had nothing left to give
Till your eyes shined a light on my scarred soul
Back to life from your first touch
Yeah you really got me opening up
Don't tell the whole world about ya
I already believe I found ya

You give me feelings
So many feelings
What a surprise
Who knew I'd ever find
So many feelings
Some I can't mention
Who knew I'd find
A place to hide

A place to hide
I found a place to hide
You are my safety line
You give me feelings
All I was missing
Is in your eyes
A place to hide
A place to hide
A place to mend these broken pieces inside

You give me feelings
So many feelings
What a surprise
Who knew I'd ever find

So many feelings
Some I can't mention
Who knew I'd find
A place to hide
A place to hide
