

Old Dog, New Bitch

Ella Mai

I been thinking 'bout telling him for a while now but what you think?
I think that's a good idea, are you sure you want to do that?
I mean, to be honest, I don't even - I don't care. I don't care about him
That's true, but it's whatever makes you happy
Hold on, hold on, hold on, he's calling me. I'ma call you back, alright?
Alright

Hello?
Hey, what's up? I just want to say I'm sorry

Hold up
I got a confession
While you was out doing her, I was out doing him
Had to teach you a lesson
Cause what I needed here was missing
Two can play the game, I ain't tripping
Cause you thought that I was safe
Now your ass gon' pay
Can't teach an old dog new tricks
Ain't gon' be the one you screwing
You made your bed, boy you better lay in it
Cause I'm laying with another
Hope the next time you know better
Next time you know better
Next time you know better
Next time you know better
