

Pieces

Ella Mai

Maybe it's 'cause we're just two fools
Broken by love
We know how to pick all the pieces up

It's a storm outside of you
Baby, trust me you the truth
Can you hold me like I ain't got forever?
If it's a flood then we gone float
You know I see what you don't Make you better 'cause I keep you together, yeah

You know what's good
You know you mine
I put in work
You know I'm fine
Won't do too much
But still we gon' try

Me not chasing you
You not changing me
We know ain't no crossing that line
You not scared to move
I ain't sweating you
'Cause we both know better this time

Maybe it's 'cause we're just two fools
Broken by love
We know how to pick all the pieces up
Just two fools
Broken by love
We know how to pick all the pieces up

No reason to worry bout where, where you been
But if I did I know you'll fill the space in
And that's that safe love
We ain't scared to say it
Ain't no need to pretend
We just trust what it is

You know what's good
You know you mine
I put in work
You know I'm fine
Won't do too much
But still we gon' try

Me not chasing you
You not changing me
We know ain't no crossing that line
You not scared to move
I ain't sweating you
'Cause we both know better this time

Maybe it's 'cause we're just two fools
Broken by love
Just two fools

Broken by love

Though we fall sometimes
Love don't lie
Baby, meet me in the moment like we only got tonight
You know I fell for you
'Cause you let me fly
Swear I let you go wherever you like

Me not chasing you
You not changing me
I ain't sweating you
(Time)

Maybe it's 'cause we're just two fools
Broken by love
Just two fools
Broken by love
Just two fools
Broken by love
Just two fools
Broken by love

(Pick all the pieces up)
