

Somebody's Son

Ella Mai

Only known him for some years
But I met him in another life
Only took you 40 days and 40 nights
To come get me out this place
Show me what it should be like
Oh, he's taking all the space inside my mind

Even when he wrong wanna apologise
I don't really care who's right
Wanna give him all my nights
All my sides
He talk to me so nice
Down bad, and it just can't be helped
You don't know how hard I fell
I can't even hold me up
So in love
Boy, look what you've done, I'm

Weak for somebody's son
And I swear that man get anything he want from Me, tryna show him sum
And he got me doing things I ain't never done
I'm
Weak for somebody's son, yeah
I ain't tryna text, need that one-on-one, baby
Yeah, you know what's up
Got me weak in the knees

Yeah, his mama raised him right
Won't let me open my own door
Yeah, he walks on the outside
Feel so secure

Even when he wrong wanna apologise
I don't really care who's right
Wanna give him all my nights
All my sides
He talk to me so nice
Down bad, and it just can't be helped
You don't know how hard I fell
I can't even hold me up
So in love
Boy, look what you've done, I'm

Weak for somebody's son
And I swear that man get anything he want from

And he got me doing things I ain't never done

Ooh, I trust him

Know it's true
